

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS First officially recognized by the federal government in 1991, the “Day of Mourning” is a time when employers, workers, families and others come together to remember those who have lost their lives, been injured or suffer from work-related incidents or occupational diseases; and

WHEREAS Preventing workplace deaths, injuries and diseases can only be achieved if we collectively focus our efforts on creating safe and healthy workplaces;

WHEREAS “Day of Mourning” provides an opportunity for all of us to recommit ourselves to making workplaces safer and establishing safe conditions to prevent workplace related illnesses, injuries and deaths.

WHEREAS April 28, 2025 is recognized as the “Day of Mourning” in Red Deer by the Alberta Construction Safety Association's Parkland Regional Safety Committee, Manufacturer's Health and Safety Association, the Red Deer Construction Association and Energy Safety Canada.

NOW THEREFORE

I, Ken Johnston, Mayor of The City of Red Deer, encourage Red Deerians to take the opportunity to remember the men and women who have lost their lives or have been injured and suffer from work-related incidents, and to take safety measures to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in honour of this commemorative day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the Official Seal of The City of Red Deer to be affixed.

Mayor Ken Johnston
City of Red Deer
